2016 August Outreach Report

These are the new initiatives that Outreach will work on this year:

1. Awareness Campaign for OUTREACH/JAZZ2U
2. Reapply for the JAZZ2U grant with Herb Alpert Foundation
3. Update/Improve the Evaluation form used for JAZZ2U
4. For JAZZ2U-Restructure the fixed $300 grant amount amount so more can be given to events that are large audience based and involve many participants.
5. Expand the Virtual Concert series

Meeting Dates:
- July- Connect to discuss initiatives for coming year.
- August 8-MJP and Sharon Burch (ED) will be meeting with Jonathan Bloom, NOLA rep to set up conference outreach and day workshop.
- October- conference call/connect in October prior to discuss improvements in JAZZ2U program.
- January-The full Outreach committee meets annually at the conference and 1-2 in addition via conference call when needed.
- Ongoing-The JAZZ2U approval committee is in contact every time an application is received which is several times per month.

(Full JAZZ2U report coming in January at end of calendar year).

- Rick Drumm suggested creating a direct marketing piece that could be distributed through business retailers who visit band directors, as well as digital marketing.
- Todd Stoll asked if demographics and other data is collected for those who receive JAZZ2U grants. Discussion ensued on ways to use the the NEON CRM platform to create a form to collect the data prior to distributing the grants to recipients.
- Tim Fellow shared a restructuring of the JAZZ2U financial process to comply with the policies and procedures. It will commence immediately.
- JAZZ2U Grants will be increased to distributions of $500 for 3 or more musicians; $300 for 1-2 musicians.

CONCLUSIONS

2016-2017 KEY INITIATIVES (Details attached):

1. Collect, create, and organize relevant and useful jazz education resources for every age and level of education.
2. Extend jazz education reach beyond JEN membership and the current jazz world, focusing on articles in jazz and "non-jazz" publications/blogs.

2016-2017 EDUCATION COMMITTEE MEETINGS:
2016 June (via Web Meetings and phone calls by subcommittee)
2016 Aug 1 - Deadline for article submissions. Connect via JENI
2017 January 6 - 8:00am - Committee meeting at JEN conference.
2017 June (via Web Meetings and phone calls by subcommittee)

- Greg Yasinitsky and Monika Herzig suggested creating a “peer-review” process for JEN as a member benefit for the collegiate level article contributors. They volunteered to help create the structure for peer-reviewed articles on the JEN website.
- Once established, Sharon will connect with the Membership Committee Chair, Jim Guss, to add to the member benefits.
- Regarding the Saturday Workshop in New Orleans, we are still in search of key New Orleans point of contact. Todd Stoll offered to assist. Depending on the point person’s input a decision will be made on whether or not to host the workshop in January 2017.

CONCLUSIONS
Sharon Burch made a motion to accept the Report as received.
Seconded by Rick Drumm.
Motion passed.

Key Initiative #1 Approve Strategic Partnership Template
The CMA Agreement, signed in April, is suggested as the model for all true JEN strategic partnerships.
4/5/16 – CMA Agreement completed

Key Initiative #2 Board Must Differentiate "Strategic Partnership" from a simple relationship
Our list of partnership includes active and mutually beneficial partnerships such as CMA, as well as simple relationships with organizations and companies.
8/16: Board discusses the definition

Key Initiative #3 Board Determines which are true “partnerships”
A listing of relationships.
8/16: Review and Approve from list

Vice President should always be the chair of the Partnerships.
Need an established Partnership Template for creating JEN partnerships.
